The Embassy of Italy presents its compliments to the Department of State and with reference to the stipulation of a new bilateral Civil Air Transport Agreement between Italy and the United States has the honor, upon instructions of its Government, of proposing the resumption at an early date of formal negotiations with a view to the conclusion of said Agreement.

The Italian Government would also like to call the attention of the Department of State to the fact that the last stage of official negotiations took place in Washington in December of 1968, and has therefore the honor of inviting the United States Government to resume
